

11th Annual Options for Diabetes Conference

When: Friday, April 16 and Saturday, April 17, 2010

Where: Holiday Inn, Kingston, Ontario, Canada

Who should attend: Healthcare professionals interested in increasing their knowledge of diabetes

Topics to include: musculoskeletal disorders and diabetes; bariatric surgery; First Nations traditional food; incretin-based therapy; foot care; vascular disease; customizing treatment for type 2 diabetes; two speakers with diabetes

 There will also be a separate half day pre-conference workshop on Thursday, April 15 from 1 to 4pm at the Kingston Holiday Inn: “Individualizing Best Treatment Choices Based on CPG’s”, by Nancy Benn
(Separate registration will be required for pre-conference workshop)

For more information on both conference and pre-conference workshop, contact: Margaret Little, 613 547-3438 or hartwork@kingston.net or Joan Ferguson, 416 239-0551